

An illustration of a healthcare worker, a Black woman with her hair in a bun, wearing a blue short-sleeved shirt and using a stethoscope. She is seated at a grey table, listening to the arm of a patient. The patient is a white woman with long brown hair, wearing a red long-sleeved shirt and dark pants. She has a black blood pressure cuff on her left arm. The background is a solid magenta color with faint, semi-transparent icons of medical supplies and educational posters. One poster is labeled 'FEMALE CONDOM' and another 'FERTILITY-AWARENESS-BASED'.
